

AMAZED AT RESPONSE—Mrs. Ollin J. Owens, of Greenville, S. C., president of the Conference of Ministers' Wives and recipient of last year's award for "Distinguished Service," registers only surprise and amazement at the large number of nominations coming in for this year's award. Mrs. Owens is perhaps better known as "Minnie Belle" because of her popular column in The Baptist Program.

WHO WILL IT BE? Most Outstanding Wife Of Minister In The SBC

By Mrs. J. Marse Gant,
Awards Chairman

"The most outstanding minister's wife in the Southern Baptist Convention! Who Me?" would be the laughing words of my pastor's wife if she knew that I was writing this, for the last thing she would want would be for anyone to think that her motive for anything she does for her family and for her church is other than one of service."

In the form of tributes like this, nominations are coming from every state in the Southern Baptist Convention for the annual "Distinguished Service Award" to be presented in May to the most outstanding minister's wife. From large churches and small, folks are letting it be known in no uncertain terms that they love their pastors' wives.

Most Are Versatile

Pastors' wives are versatile, that's for sure, doing anything from cutting the patch in the pastor's suit to preparing food and bringing it to the workers and assisting with the actual work on the pastor-lum — sanding, painting, cleaning windows, even helping a little on putting down the hard-

Convention Met Last In Louisville In '27

LOUISVILLE — (BP) — More than three decades ago — the year was 1927 — Southern Baptists held their annual Convention in Louisville. Although it is the home of their oldest seminary and houses many Baptist institutions, the Convention bypassed Louisville from 1927 to 1959.

Baptist growth has paralleled the growth of the city during the intervening years. Today there are 112 Southern Baptist churches, almost double the 57 churches located here in 1927. The number of missions now stands at 37, more than seven times greater than the five missions operated in 1927. Total membership has more than tripled, from 25,558 to 83,725.

Eight Institutions

There are eight Baptist institutions in the city representing all phases of Baptist organization — the local church, the association of churches, the state association, and the Southern Baptist Convention.

Plans are being discussed for two more institutions — a Louisville Baptist college and a Baptist home for the aged. Two of the eight existing institutions are in building programs.

Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, celebrating its 100th anniversary, and Carter School of Missions and Social Work — schools with adjacent campuses — are operated directly by the Southern Baptist Convention. The Baptist Sunday School Board, a Convention agency, operates a Baptist book store in the city.

The Baptist General Association of Kentucky — state Baptist organization — has its office building in Middletown, a suburb of Louisville, having moved there from downtown Louisville in recent years. The general association operates Spring Meadows Children's Home on Shelbyville Rd. caring for 210 children.

Association Cooperates
Long Run Association of churches (Louisville area), in co-operation with two individual Baptist churches, directs two local missions centers — Central Baptist Chapel and Bethel Baptist Chapel.

The Convention's Home Mission Board, Long Run Association, and a group of Negro Baptists jointly maintain Baptist Fellowship Center ministering to about 125 persons.

State Students Serve

Mississippi Baptist students will send twelve of their members to serve as missionaries this summer, working with permanent Southern Baptist missionaries in the various areas.

Representing them in Hawaii will be George Pittman, Mississippi College senior from Decatur, Georgia.

Miss Bena Margaret Cole, Mississippi State University and Miss Anita Purl Mathews, Mississippi College, will be in California and Tommy Lee Ross, Mississippi College, will be in

SBC Committee On Boards Nominates 200 Yearly

NASHVILLE (BP) — It's not often realized that more than 200 positions on over 20 agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention are filled by election each year.

Because the Convention's constitution sets a limit on the number of years a board member's term runs, and on the number of terms the member may serve before "rotating off," this 200-vacancy item of business is a major item of business at the annual convention.

The nominating committee to fill these important positions has a major role in Convention life. It's called the Committee on Boards. In addition to nominating agency board members, it nominates persons also to make up the Committee on Order of Business which drafts the program for the next year's Convention session.

Chairman of the Committee on Boards which will recommend persons to be elected by messengers at Louisville in May is W. M. Marshall, pastor of

Marshall gained experience in this type of committee work last year when he was chairman of the committee on nominations of the Georgia Baptist Convention. The committee on nominations recommended persons for election to Georgia Baptist agency governing boards.

GLORIETA NEW SBC ASSEMBLY

By E. A. HERRON, Manager
Glorieta Baptist Assembly

The Glorieta Baptist Assembly has been blessed each year by having an average of 30 Mississippi young people on its staff. This group with the other staffers from 26 states along with the permanent staff would welcome you to Glorieta.

Come and see your new Assembly. Beginning with Pioneer Week in August 1952, Glorieta has grown rapidly to a paid registration of 13,007 in 1958. We are expecting 15,000 this summer.

Here in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains you will find the temperature cool and refreshing, the skies blue and clear, the customs of the red and white man intermingling and much more of interest in this Land of Enchantment.

But best of all are the blessed warmth of Christian fellowship and the new spiritual experiences that are gained by sharing with your fellow Baptists from coast to coast.

Convention Owned

The Glorieta Baptist Assembly is owned and operated by the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. It was started while Dr. T. L. Holcomb was Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Sunday School Board. Dr. James L. Sullivan is Executive Secretary-Treasurer now — both are natives of Mis-issippi.

New buildings have been added each year and always they are filled to capacity. Future plans call for a continued annual building program to provide for the ever increasing numbers coming to Glorieta.

We would like for you to include Glorieta in your summer trips for we want to share the good things here with you.

Lottie Moon Tops 1957 Grand Total

The 1958 Lottie Moon Christmas Offering reached a total of $6,307,239.91 today (March 20), according to Everett L. Deane, secretary of the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board.

This is $185,654.91 more than the grand total for 1957 and $833,908.54 more than was received by the same date last year. The grand total for 1958 will not be known until books are closed on the Offering May first.

511 NORTH AKARD—Dallas, Texas—Yes, 511 North Akard is the name of the new home of the Relief and Annuity Board, located adjacent to the old headquarters here. Fifteen stories high, the new commodious building has already been occupied by the Board which will use part of three floors. The remainder will be rented.

Melbourne Crusade

Sets All-Time Record

MELBOURNE (RNS) — Billy Graham drew a record number of 143,750 people in the huge outdoor Olympic Stadium here for the final rally of the month-long Melbourne phase of his phase of his Australian Crusade.

Following the rally, the American evangelist said the crowd was the largest ever to attend one of his meetings anywhere in the world. The previous record had been the 120,000 who jammed Wembley Stadium in London in 1954.

Jerry Beaven, manager of the Graham crusade team, said the huge crowd here brought to a grand total of 714,000 the number of persons who heard the 40-year-old evangelist speak during his 26 meetings in Melbourne. He said 26,400 "decisions for Christ" were made during the four-week campaign.

He estimated that another 4,000 decisions were made at the final rally, but because of the crowds in the stadium an accurate count was impossible. Those wishing to dedicate their lives to Christ were not asked to come forward to the speakers' platform, but were told to stand up and give their names to team counselors.

Message from "Ike"

During the rally Mr. Graham read a message from President Eisenhower in which he conveyed greetings from the American people to all Australians.

"I am delighted to learn of the warm reception that you have encountered in Australia," the President told Mr. Graham, "I am not at all surprised at the traditional hospitality that the people of that country are showing."

Best Story In The World

By MRS. CHARLES W. SHIRLEY
Southern Baptist Missionary

One day we went with a group of Spanish language school students and their families on a sight-seeing tour of Costa Rica, taking our oldest children, Mark, six, and Lou Ann, almost five, along.

A high light of the trip was our visit to the cathedral in Cartago, where the children viewed with unusual interest the images and particularly the crucifix. Later we stopped at an old Spanish mission and saw a figure of the dead Christ in a glass-enclosed coffin.

"Daddy, I have seen Jesus dead so many times today. Will you please tell me again the story of the resurrection?" After listening to the story he said, "That's the best story in the whole world."

If a six-year old boy can have a hunger like that in his heart, we wonder what real yearning there must be in the hearts of people who have indeed "seen Jesus dead so many times."

SBC Committee

nominating 200 persons to key places of leadership in the Southern Baptist Convention.

He first explained the way the Committee on Boards is composed in membership. It has one member from each state in the SBC qualified for representation. (A state must have at least 25,000 members of co-operating churches to qualify.)

After that he outlined some of the steps the 1958-59 committee has followed:

Step One—The committee members each receive a worksheet for the Committee on Boards especially prepared by the office of the Executive Committee of the Convention. The worksheet lists, by agencies, each vacancy that must be voted on at the 1959 Convention.

Step Two—The committee considers, on basis of information in the worksheet, whether the person is eligible for re-election. "A man is entitled to a second term by normal procedure the Convention has followed," Marshall explained. These eligible will most likely be renominated.

Vacancies Considered

Step Three—The committee considers vacancies which must be filled by the election of new persons. These vacancies occur in several ways. A board member may have served the limit of years imposed by the constitution; he may have moved into another state during the year and thus become ineligible; or members may have resigned or died.

Step Four—The committee considers from each state the vacancies requiring new persons who must come from his state. The name suggested by the state representative on the committee for a vacancy from his state is usually accepted. It is presumed that the state member is familiar with those in his state and has selected the best qualified persons for nomination.

Rev. Everett Reneer

TO STUDY IN SCOTLAND

Rev. Everett V. Reneer, pastor of Forrest Avenue Church, Biloxi for the past five years has been accepted for graduate study toward a Ph. D. degree at the University of St. Andrews, Scotland. He will leave New York City, April 1.

Rev. Reneer has a B. A. degree from Mississippi College, a B. D. degree from Southern Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky and a Master of Arts degree from Mississippi Southern College, Hattiesburg.

The WMU of the Forrest Avenue Church will honor Rev. Reneer and his family with a coast-wide reception on Sunday, March 29 between 2:30 and 4:00. Friends are invited to attend.

Leadership Or Headship

By CARL A. CLARK
Professor Pastoral Ministry,
Southwestern Seminary, Ft.
Worth, Texas

In this article let me talk to the pastor.

The question in my mind is: What type of leadership principles do you use in accomplishing your purpose with your church. Are you using principles which have been proven to be successful and useful or are you blundering through the best way you can? As the pastor of the church, I know you are vitally interested in leading your church to a progressive and effective program.

Leadership

Leadership has been defined in so many different ways that it seems rather useless to attempt to present another.

Leadership is always relative to a situation. If one is a leader of a group it means he is in relationship to that particular group at that particular time. One group will be different from another. A church will be different from a business. In fact, one church will be different from any other church. He needs to be conscious also of the timeliness of his leadership effort. That is to say, there are favorable moments in which a new effort may be attempted. Other moments may be unfavorable and it would be unwise even to suggest a forward step.

Leadership also has to do with a definite objective goal. A pastor who is perfectly satisfied for his church to move along from month to month without significant planned change is not the leader. He must have a definite goal in his own mind and he must be working toward this objective. Leadership involves an effort at a deliberate change and at planned progress. Good leadership always involves something in the nature of a challenge.

Leadership also involves a process of mutual stimulation. Leadership is not one person doing the work for a group. It does not conceive of the pastor doing the work of the church. These principles involved in good leadership automatically exclude such activities as business management, teaching and what we shall call headship.

Headship

The term headship has been used to imply a more authoritative type leadership. This type involves some degree at least of domination, authority and control.

Headship usually involves an organized system. This means that an institution is developed along traditional patterns and the process follows established customs. The leader then becomes the head of this organized system.

Headship implies that the leader is the one who arbitrarily chooses the goal for the group to achieve. Group participation in the choice of the goal is at a minimum. It is more authoritatively and independently made by the head.

Headship usually implies social distance between the head of the organization and the members. That is to say, the leader assumes a place of high prestige and maintains some bit of isolation from the members of the organization.

The Pastor

The pastor sustains a rather unique relationship in relation to the above definition of terms. Officially he is the head of an organization, since he is the pastor of the church. On the other hand, unofficially, he is a leader working with and through the members of the group.

As pastor of the church he is automatically the head of an organization. In this position as the head of an organization, he naturally assumes the role of headship and in some measure at least will direct his program from that view point. There are some areas in which the pastor should have a measure of authority and control.

From an unofficial standpoint, however, the pastor is the leader of the people who constitute the membership of his church. He works as the leader of small groups as deacons, committees, etc. In many of these areas he does not have the role of headship but only the influence and persuasiveness of his own personality and thought.

It must be recognized then that as these principles apply to the pastor of a Baptist Church, the idea of headship and the idea of leadership are not necessarily mutually exclusive. At one point in his ministry he may act as the head of an organization, whereas at another point, he is strictly an informal leader.

Donnell Receives Tribute

A recent issue of the Blue Mountain College Bulletin was dedicated to Dr. Alonzo McWilliams Donnell, professor of science from 1918 until 1958, with the notation that "he will be missed but never forgotten."

Dr. Donnell, according to the Bulletin, would have held the position until his death if a brief illness had not made this impossible.

He also served as town clerk and in the Lowrey Memorial Church he was clerk and deacon.

Dr. Donnell was devoted to his family and known by all for his kindness to others.

Accommodations For 5000 Included In Future Plans

On a 1300-acre ranch in the wooded foothills of the lofty Sangre de Cristo Mountains, 19 miles east of Santa Fe, New Mexico, Glorieta Baptist Assembly is developing rapidly.

Back in 1946, the Southern Baptist Convention had recognized the need for another leadership center to supplement the highly successful one in operation for 27 years at Ridgecrest, N. C.

Accordingly, committees were appointed to look for suitable sites, being counseled to keep in mind accessibility, climatic conditions, a scenic setting and recreational outlets.

Texas, Arkansas and Missouri offered locations and a New Mexico group suggested a ranch extending along the lower stretches of Pecos Canyon. The latter was eliminated as a possibility when it was purchased for a Trappists monastery. However, this area seemed well suited for the Assembly and the nearby 800-acre Breese Ranch was investigated.

So it was, that in 1949 two locations remained to be recommended by the committees to the Convention—one at Glorieta and the other at Harrison, Ark. In spite of the committees' leaning toward the Arkansas site the Convention voted in favor of Glorieta.

Land Given

Although the ranch land at Glorieta was purchased in 1948 with funds provided by New Mexico Baptists and given to the Southern Baptist Convention in 1950, actual construction did not begin until 1952.

To test out operations, a pre-view opening known as Pioneer Week was held from August 7 to 13, 1952, and for which 1417 persons from eighteen states.

The following year on June 8, the Assembly opened for its first twelve-week leadership training program.

Each year has shown a marked increase in attendance—1957 paid registrations numbered 12,057.

Serving the 1956 weekly turnover of trainees a summer staff of 100 college girls and 50 college boys, in addition to 29 adults (hostesses, staff counselors, supervisors and kitchen crew) was kept busy in the various tasks such as clerical work, room service in the residence halls, recreational activities, waiting tables, sanitation and linen maintenance, etc. A permanent staff of eleven lives on the grounds the year round.

7 Residence Halls

There are now seven residence halls—Texas Hall, Oklahoma Hall, Hall of States, Cedar Pine and Spruce Lodges, and the new Dormitory. Yucca Lodge houses girl staff members; and in the spring of 1957 a boy's staff building was constructed which accommodates 92 boys in addition to private quarters for a Boys' Counselor.

The auditorium includes 26 conference rooms.

The first building to be erected on the grounds was the initial unit of New Mexico Hall, which houses the administrative offices, registration, book store, gift shop, snack bar, mail and information counter. In the spring of 1956 the primary unit of the Dining Hall was enlarged so that 1500 persons could be served at one sitting in the spacious, 120 by 120 foot, well lighted hall.

Beautiful picnic grounds under the trees have been equipped with six outdoor fireplaces containing specially cast iron grills, ideal for steak fries, each accommodating 25 steaks at a time.

Children's Building

A commodious children's building, for those birth through eight, is one of the newest buildings on the grounds.

In addition to the residence halls, there are now 27 cottages, built by churches, colleges or individuals. The Assembly owns seven other cottages in which permanent employees live all year round. A large Camp Area among the evergreens to the east of the Auditorium now has 35 Camp Shelters.

A Trailer Area with hook-up for eight units plus a place for tents is a part of the Camp Area.

The Camp School Board, which has the responsibility of developing and operating the Assembly, estimates the total project to be about one-third complete. Based upon a ten-year plan of construction there will be ultimate accommodations for 2500 to 3,000 persons weekly in lodges, hotels, dormitories, motels, apartments and efficiency apartments.

The new four-story, 3-story building will be built in 1959 in 100 cottages built by churches and private individuals, bringing the maximum capacity to 5000 per week.

New Mexico Hall in its final form will be a horseshoe shaped structure, housing administrative offices, registration desk, library, recreation rooms, book store, gift shop, post office, snack bar, beauty, barber, tailor and other utility shops. The completed auditorium building, Holcomb Hall, will contain in addition to the assembly hall seating 4000 persons, 50 class and conference rooms. It is planned to further extend the Dining Hall to a final capacity of 2500 persons at a single sitting.

Plenty of Recreation

There is no excuse for anyone, old or young, to be bored at Glorieta as nearly every popular sport has been provided under supervision of a Recreation Director and several assistants. An eight-acre, centrally located, has swings and slides for the small fry, soft ball courts for all ages, tennis and badminton courts, shuffle board, croquet and horseshoe courts. The hiker and horseback rider will find the shady trails leading up the canyons to the high country most exhilarating. A three-acre lake which will be stocked with Rainbow trout and Crappie will transform the ravine in front of New Mexico Hall.

Nearby Attractions

Near Glorieta station, across the highway from the Assembly, the Santa Fe railroad climbs over Glorieta Pass at an elevation of 7,421 feet, the second highest pass in their system.

Assembly, the town of Pecos, situated in a green valley on both banks of the Pecos River, marks the entrance to the Santa Fe National Forest comprising some 380,000 acres.

Of interest for the archaeologically inclined are the ruins,

Glorieta Gardens Prime Attraction

The new four-story, 3-story building will be built in 1959 in 100 cottages built by churches and private individuals, bringing the maximum capacity to 5000 per week.

First on the left is a small pool in which water-loving iris are grown. Just beyond, the flagstone double stairways lead up through the eight tiered gardens, each of which will have its own theme of development—according to the master plan.

Each garden terrace is outlined with native rock; gravelled walks, pergolas and rustic benches will add to visitors' enjoyment of each garden.

On one terrace is the New Mexico Garden, devoted to plants, shrubs and trees indigenous to the State—conifers, aspens, sumac and red bud—which have already been planted in numbers.

The central portion, with entrance opposite the Greenhouse, is a Cactus Garden of some 3,000 native New Mexico cacti.

Another terrace will contain herbs used in the healing of Mankind; others, a Poet's Garden, a Memory Garden and a Spanish Garden. The Rose Garden will be planted to roses especially propagated and developed to thrive in the climate and altitude of Glorieta.

God's Garden

The topmost terrace, God's Garden, will be devoted to plants, flowers, shrubs and trees which are mentioned in the Bible. A levelled arena will, four miles south of Pecos, of what was possibly the largest prehistoric city in the Southwest.

Santa Fe, the capital city of New Mexico, was founded in 1610 and the Palace of the Governors, which served as the capitol for many years, is the oldest public building in the United States.

Report On Revival Results

The first phase of the 1959 evangelism crusade will end this week in most south Mississippi churches. The second part will involve April revivals in the northern part of the state.

Send a report of the revival in your church to The Baptist Record so it can be shared with the entire state.

The victories won in your church will be an encouragement and an inspiration to others.

Enlisting The New Members

Several thousand new members will be added to the church rolls in Mississippi during the current revivals.

Put your state paper to work enlisting these people in active Christian service through your church.

See that they have an opportunity to grow in knowledge, understanding, and interest in the work Baptists are doing.

Three cents per family per week through the Every Family Plan will provide them with a wealth of vital information through The Baptist Record.

Supplement all that will be done locally in enlistment. Provide these new members with a subscription to the paper immediately.

New Life In New Churches

Among Southern Baptists new churches have the best record in evangelism.

One year old churches are now reporting baptisms at the rate of one for eight church members, according to the Division of Evangelism, Home Mission Board.

Two year old churches have an average of one baptism or nine members.

The average membership gain in a year for one year old churches is forty-four. For two year old churches the gain is forty-one.

A church gains strength in many respects as its membership grows larger. In the important matter of soul-winning, however, effectiveness drops off as the years roll on and the membership goes up.

New Churches Needed

Ponder for a moment the staggering fact that 51 million citizens past 12 years of age are not members of any church, synagogue or religious group!

Can anyone doubt the desperate need for establishing 30,000 new Southern Baptist churches and preaching stations?

The United States is still one of the great mission fields of the world.

Convention Registration

Steps should be taken by the churches to properly certify messengers who will attend the Southern Baptist Convention, May 19-22, Louisville, Ky.

Registration cards may be obtained from the office of Dr. Chester L. Quarles, Box 530, Jackson. They should be filled in and moved by either the church clerk or messenger.

Every cooperating church is entitled to at least one messenger. The constitution allows one additional messenger from each such church for every 250 members, or for each $250 paid to the work of the convention during the fiscal year preceding the annual meeting. The maximum number of messengers allowed any church is ten.

Send the pastor and his wife, to the convention this year. It will be the most important Baptist meeting of 1959. Make it possible for them to go.

And why not lead a group of laymen and their wives to go also!

The Human Equation

Getting along with people is a full-time business requiring wisdom, understanding, and patience. Much patience and forbearance!

The delicate art of human relations is an acquired skill. It requires conscious effort. And it must be played by ear.

Burton Hillis in Better Homes & Gardens suggests that in this daily preoccupation the five most important words are, "I am proud of you." The four most important words are, "What is your opinion?" The three most important words are, "If you please..." The two most important words are, "Thank you." The least important symbol in our language, "I".

Jesus stated the basic equation thus: "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you."

Doing Unto Others

An unusual advertisement appeared recently in an Oklahoma newspaper.

It said, "Man or boy 18 to 23 years old. Must have court record. Prefer man who is on parole. Apply in person."

It was placed by a masonry contractor who spent much of his youth in a reformatory.

Before his release he had promised God to help other ex-prisoners. Thus far he has given jobs to over 400 parolees.

The faults of others are like headlights on an automobile. They only seem more glaring than our own. —Hudson Newsletter.

Open Letter To Masonite Corp.

Yesterday the last payment was made on the annex to our church building at INDIAN SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH (in Perry County, Miss.), and the building was dedicated to the service and to the glory of God, free of indebtedness.

Outstanding among those who contributed to our new church annex building is THE MASONITE CORPORATION of Laurel, Mississippi. The floor of the building is of cement, the walls are of cement blocks, but the ceiling, the partitions, the cabinets, the tables and the benches are all of MASONITE material, the contribution of the MASONITE CORPORATION.

At the dedication service the Indian Springs Baptist Church, in conference assembled, voted unanimously that this letter of sincere appreciation and thanks be written and sent to the MASONITE CORPORATION of Laurel, Miss., forwarded to them through their representative in Richton, Miss., Mr. Ben Stevens Jr.

Mrs. L. C. Blake, Church Clerk, Indian Springs, Route 2, Richton, Miss.

Indian Springs

As you must know, our church is an "Every Family" church.

This may account for the fact that we increased our 1958-59 budgeted contribution to the Co-op Program from 10 percent to 12 percent of all receipts which are now being sent in monthly, instead of quarterly, as we did before.

Rev. DeVon Byrd was ordained to the ministry when he became my co-pastor last September. Bro. Byrd and his wife moved into our church parsonage, for Mrs. Chastain and I are needed as host and hostess of Lawrence Hall, the men's dormitory of William Carey College. I continue to preach in the Indian Springs church Sunday mornings, while Bro. Byrd and his wife (students at William Carey College) take charge of all of the rest of the services, and do it well.

Record Not Small!

I appreciate your letter of March 13th in regard to additional subscriptions to the Record. I am very proud to report that Enon Church is 100% up-to-date in their every-family plan.

Our membership is small, which makes our figures small, but The Record is not small in our estimation. Thanks to you and your efficient staff for the wonderful job that you do each week.

EASTER IN ISRAEL

Easter-time is spring-time in Israel: "For lo, the winter is past, the flowers appear on the earth, the time of the singing of birds is come and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land." Song of Songs 2:11-12.

This period marks the commencement of the yearly Holy Land Pilgrimages by Christian visitors of all denominations, from all parts of the world. On Good Friday and Easter Sunday, many pilgrims visit Jerusalem for the services and Mass centering around Mount Zion.

On Mount Zion are the Cenacle, traditional Room of the last Supper, and the Abbey of the Dormition. Here, on Holy Thursday, the Last Supper is commemorated and Franciscan monks from Jerusalem's Old City cross the armistice lines to attend the special Mass. On Holy Saturday, Easter Vigil, followed by Midnight Mass, is sung at the Abbey of the Dormition and at the Church of Notre Dame de France.

Beautiful Church

In the western outskirts of the city, surrounded by pine-clad hills, is the village of Ein Kerem, birthplace of John the Baptist. The Church of the Visitation and the Church of San Juan de Montagna here are among the most beautiful in the country. Here too are the Chapel and Grotto of St. John.

No pilgrim ever fails to visit the Galilee whose ancient beauty, is a source of eternal inspiration. The Sea of Galilee remains as it was in the days of Jesus, when He and Peter walked over the stormy waves (Matthew 14).

On the northern shore of the Sea is the Mount of Beatitudes, the scene of the Sermon on the Mount. A few miles distant, are the ruins of the Synagogue at Capernaum where Jesus healed the Centurion's servant (Matthew 8). Also in the same area is Tabgha, where He performed the miracle of the loaves and fishes (John 6).

Jesus' First Miracle

At Cana of Galilee, Jesus performed His first miracle, the changing of water into wine (John 2). But it is to Nazareth, the childhood town of Jesus, that most pilgrims eventually turn. To many, a visit to this peaceful Galilean town marks the fulfillment of a life-long ambition. Among the famous shrines here are the Church of St. Joseph, the Workshop of Joseph, the Synagogue where Jesus taught, the Chapel of Mensa Christi and Mary's Well. The Church of the Annunciation has now been demolished to make way for an even greater and nobler edifice than the previous one.

In this district, itself a treasure-trove of biblical associations, the devout visitor can humbly follow in the footsteps of Jesus, along the paths made smooth by countless pilgrims throughout the ages.

How 'Urgently'?

By A Southern Baptist Missionary

I have just read a report from the Foreign Mission Board in which 742 new missionaries are "urgently" requested. I marvelled at the high number and somewhat cynically thought, "How 'urgently'?" And then I remembered one urgent request for a missionary nurse.

I work in a Baptist hospital somewhere in the world (I do not give the name of the place because I'm sure our need is no greater than that of any of the other fields). Our Mission (organization of Southern Baptist missionaries of a given area or country) urgently requested another missionary nurse for this hospital and she is numbered among the 742 total from all the fields.

We now have one missionary nurse.

Does Double Duty

Yesterday she arose at 6:00 a. m. to help the girl ward attendants with a morning watch service for the Woman's Missionary Union week of prayer. Then, because we are so short of qualified personnel, she took a full nursing shift on the ward.

She left the ward to sterilize the syringes for the daily injections to be given some outpatients. Then she hurried to the pharmacy to fill the orders for supplies from the ward. Noticing that several of the stock solutions were nearly empty she stopped long enough to make up new ones. She went back to the ward and saw that things were settled before hurrying home for a midmorning breakfast.

She Was Lucky

Then she came back to finish out the shift and turn the keys to the narcotics over to the national nurse who came on for the afternoon. She then went home for lunch and a short rest before working on some of the correspondence in connection with trying to locate some more helpers for the hospital.

On this particular day she was lucky because there was no emergency surgery that had to be done, else she would have had to go back to help set up the operating room, give the anesthesia, and see the patient safely back to bed after the operation.

Night came and she went to bed to rest. However, if some patient had begun suffering in the night one of the ward attendants would have come and awakened her to go and give the pain-relieving injection.

No Vacation

Our nurse has been at her job for about three years now; and, because she is alone in the nursing field on a hospital station, she has not taken the in-the-country vacation, called a "local leave," which is not only allowed but encouraged by our Mission.

Very seldom does she make the 100-mile, half-day trip to the nearest town of any size to do her shopping. Others bring in her food supplies when they make hospital buying trips.

She longs for a missionary nurse who can share this work. Then both could spend some time in the villages meeting and teaching the people, witnessing to them, and visiting former patients who accepted Christ while in the hospital.

When all the missionaries in this country met in annual Mission meeting we were bold and added the word "urgent" to our request for one more nurse.

MISSIONARY NURSES NEEDED NOW

By Elmer S. West, Jr.

Personnel Secretary

Foreign Mission Board

The graphic picture painted by this anonymous missionary can be duplicated 20 times.

The need for missionary nurses is probably the most critical which the Foreign Mission Board faces in its total personnel situation. Today there are 45 missionary nurses serving in 14 hospitals and 42 clinics and dispensaries in 21 countries.

For the past four years there have been 20 to 30 nurses to fill the most urgent vacancies already existing in our medical institutions. Two hospitals have been in operation for a year or more without a single missionary nurse.

The Foreign Mission Board needs 20 nurses just as soon as possible. The situation is desperate! We need 50 nurses in the next five years in order to undertake even modest expansion of our medical evangelism program.

We need those who are now well trained and who might be ready for appointment within the coming year. We need other, younger women who will respond to the call of Christ and set themselves to get their training in the field of nursing so that they might go out a few years hence.

In addition to completing her professional training and passing state board examinations to become a registered nurse, the missionary nurse is required to have a bachelor's degree from an accredited senior college, or she may have the bachelor of science degree in nursing. She is also required to study for one year in a theological seminary. Nurses from age 24 through 32 are offered regular appointment. Special appointment may be granted for those a few years beyond the age limit.

THE BAPTIST RECORD 5

Christianity Should Not Be 'Soil Banked'

By Rev. W. D. Burns, Pastor Pheba Baptist Church

All of us by now are aware of the Department of Agriculture's "Soil Bank" program. The essence of this program is to encourage the farmer to retire from production — some, or all, of his acres of land. The retiring of this land will bring the farmer an "average production" income from the government. Thus, the land becomes idle, the farmer idle in many cases or pursues other interests; yet an income is gained from the idle land.

We, who are closely associated with this program in the capacity of country preachers, are quick to observe that for years man has been placing his soul in a similar "soul bank" situation. Man will seemingly submit to the teachings of Jesus and by his own volition participate in the affairs of Christianity.

Yet many would like to participate in the program of God, but retire their lives "from production" in the affairs of His work, all the while expecting to receive the benefits of His salvation.

Works and Faith

I believe personally, the Bible teaches us a "works with faith" religion. Thus, we cannot retire our lives "from production" in the affairs of God, and expect to receive the benefits which come from lives of service to our Lord. Whereas the principle involved in the "soil bank" program will work for the farmer and his land, it will not work for the Christian and his Creator.

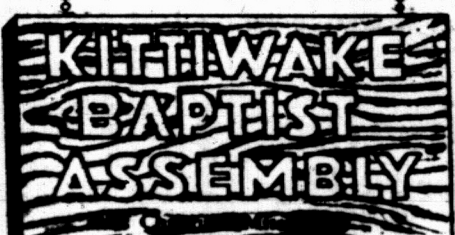

Therefore, our Christianity must not be "soil banked" but cultivated and used in our every day life in order to reap its full benefits.

WILLIAM J. MCGLOTHLIN 1867-1933

Baptist Press Syndicate—All rights reserved

Gallatin, Tenn. is William's birthplace. His father is a farmer, and in the family there are a daughter and two sons, both of whom become preachers.

William's education begins in a one-room school, but he soon seeks it afar. He becomes one of most scholarly men ever to preside over Southern Baps.

Earned degrees: Bethel College, B.A., 1889; M.A., 1891; Sou. Sem. Th.M., 1894; U. of Berlin, Ph.D., 1901. Honorary: Bethel, Furman, Wake For., Baylor.

In 1919, after 25 yrs. at Southern, he becomes Pres. of Furman U. He almost doubles number of buildings, and strengthens the school academically.

Dr. McGlothlin is a talented writer and publishes ten books on Baptist doctrines and Baptist history, in addition to numerous articles for periodicals.

He is South Carolina's organizer of 75-Million Campaign, member of Education Board, trustee of Southern Seminary, devoted worker for Christian educa-

Before entering the Seminary, he preaches and teaches. Public schools of Tenn., Bethel College and a school at Bardonia give him experience.

On Seminary graduation, becomes Dr. Sampson's asst., Old Test. and Hebrew. Becomes Prof. of church history at critical time after Whitsett controversy.

He is married in 1897 to the versatile and energetic Miss May Belle Williams. Their marriage is blessed with three daughters and a son.

Actively concerned with better race relations, is on the first National Anti-Lynching Committee. Is a representative in the Federal Food Administration.

In 1930, he succeeds Dr. Truett as President of the Southern Baptist Convention and serves for three years in this position of denominational leadership.

He and his (second) wife die from injuries received in a tragic automobile accident en route to the Southern Baptist Convention in Washington in 1938.

BEFORE—Southway Church, Brookhaven, was begun in 1951 in the oil field supply building shown above.

AFTER—The above building (Southway, Brookhaven) was completed in 1957.

wood floors." Teaching study courses, Sunday School classes, Training Union, and young people's groups is taken in stride, as well as being able to "prepare a program with 15 minutes' notice."

Nearly all the nominees are musically inclined, but at least one was not. "I can't sing good or play music but she much more fills a place of both mother and pastor's wife." And, although one wife was described as having been "a college beauty queen," another said, "She doesn't try to be the best-dressed lady in the church, but her faith shines so radiantly that she is the prettiest lady in the church."

Good Homemakers

The pastors' wives are good homemakers if the nominees are typical, and most do their own housework. One does hers because "she had rather give the money to missions than pay help," according to her nominator. Another paragon was described as "always neat, clean, and attractive, through her own care," and one was called "a real refuge for her husband, a perfect example to all of us."

Above all things, the wives nominated are dedicated women who make the fullest use of their "God-given talents to further His work." They are active, busy women doing "zillions of things," yet still "inconspicuously active in all church affairs." Expressions like these are typical: "No one can meet her and not be a better person," or "No matter how low a person may feel, he just has to be lifted to the top after seeing her radiant, smiling face, and talking with her."

Churches appreciate the consecration of pastors' wives. Sample comments: "She has done more to raise the spiritual level of our church than any other person — not by preaching (which she can do), but by her life of dedicated consecrated service. . . . She is faithful, pleasant, a person of prayer, pleasant work and smile for everyone — one who may be considered as. . . . "If she is a woman of her own, they are a woman of her own, for Southway was begun in September, 1951, in an oil field supply building on old Highway 51 South. About a year later they moved into the two-story educational building at the present location on South Jackson Extension. In 1957 the education building was brick-veneered and the auditorium-completed. Both buildings enjoy year-round air-conditioning.

With the organization of Southway this makes three churches that have come to life through the City Missions program sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Jackson. The churches are Easthaven (formerly Hamilton Street) and Central Heights. Central Heights is the fourth church to be developed by this program.

Rev. Gordon Shamburger is the Director of City Missions.

Rev. Gordon Sansing, State Secretary, Cooperative Missions Department, presented the church a certificate as one of the 30,000 new churches hoped to be organized by Southern Baptists over a five-year period.

Others on the program were Dr. W. T. Waring, Rev. Gordon Shamburger, Charlie White, Robert Wall, C. H. Lipsey, A. Marvin Sanders, Wayne Todd, Frank Coker, Mrs. Wayne Todd, and T. C. Johnson.

Theologian Hits Existentialist Idea

CHICAGO (RNS) — A Protestant theologian here assailed any philosophy of living which maintains that man must go through life alone as the "Satan" of modern times.

Dr. Daniel Day Williams of Union Theological Seminary, New York, said that religion today is confronted with the existentialist belief that people are alone in the world without any source of help except their own "courage and freedom."

He told participants of the 28th annual Ministers Week at Chicago Theological Seminary that Christianity "holds out more hope than existentialism because it teaches that man is sustained by a power greater than himself, a power superior to all forces of destruction."

"For existentialists man's life is a plunge toward nothingness. Death and dissolution is the fate of all things. . . . Man must walk resolutely in this darkness which surrounds his life," he said. "Thus nothingness has become for modern man the equivalent of Satan. It tempts man to cowardice and a life sustained by illusions."

The professor of Christian theology, who delivered a series of lectures during the Week, declared that the traditional symbol of Satan as "the enemy of mankind, luring man away from God, has taken on a new relevance in politics and psychology."

Gods Grants Freedom

Expanding on how the Christian faith offers power to resist the satanic lure, Dr. Williams said that the contemporary Satan is a "risk of freedom."

"But God is not at the mercy of this threat," he stressed. "The freedom which He grants to the creation and which must involve temptation does not permit the ultimate enslavement of human spirit to any power outside itself."

In the Christian faith, he said, "a new courage is possible in the face of all temptation," adding that Christianity declares "no nation or party should be allowed to tyrannize over the human spirit."

In another lecture, Dr. Williams called for a "reconciliation" to heal the deep divisions existing among races, creeds and nations.

"It is only through an acceptance of the ultimate moral responsibilities of mankind that the way to reconciliation can be found," he said.

"The first requirement for healing mankind's divisions," he declared, "is a concession of our alienation from a just order of life and a confession of our common responsibility for it."

Memphis Hospital Board Names State Men Officers

The Board of Trustees of Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, in their annual meeting returned Dr. Paul A. Weiland, Trenton, Tenn., to the presidency and elected two Mississippians among the new officers for the new year.

Fred Carter of Lake City, Ark. was named first vice-president; J. Thomas Murphy of Tupelo, was elected second vice-president, and Dr. J. S. Riser, Jr., of Webb, was named secretary.

Raymond L. Rogers of Nashville, Tenn., was re-elected as chairman of the Executive Committee. Other members include M. P. Moore of Senatobia; J. W. Caperton, Tunica.

Other members from the state include Cameron Dean, Tribbett; Paul Owen, New Albany; Henry Self, Marks; Dr. Harvey Flowers, West Point; J. B. Perry, Jr., Grenada and C. G. Bobo, Clarksdale, who served on the board previously as vice-president.

BAPTISTS PARTICIPATE—Rev. Joe H. Cothen, pastor, Alta Woods Church, (left) and Cecil Roper, minister of music, Parkway Church, are among the Baptist leaders who will participate in Jackson's annual city-wide Easter sunrise service Sunday morning at Hinds Memorial Stadium at 6 o'clock. Sponsoring units are the Jackson Ministerial Association and the Jaycees. Dr. W. B. Selah of Galloway Methodist Church, will preach the sermon.

In Memory Of Byron Garrett

By MISS MARIE ARMSTRONG

A pall of gloom was cast over this and many other vicinities Saturday, February 21, when the death angel entered the George Byron Garrett home and took away the dear husband and father. His going away was not unexpected, for he had been a patient sufferer for several years. Although everything that medical science could do was done to prolong his life and if possible effect a cure, it was not our maker's good will. He fully realized his condition and was perfectly reconciled long before he slipped into the portals of glory.

Even though he often suffered agony, he never complained or bemoaned his fate, but always greeted everyone with his amiable smile.

He was the son of the late Mattie Florence Butler and Marion Garrett, the nephew of the late Dr. Thomas Butler of Monticello and a great-nephew of the late Gov. Houshoun Longino of our state.

Lawrence County has indeed lost one of her best men. He and his devoted companion have been residents of our community for many years. Mr. Garrett spent almost his entire life in the lovely old family homestead at Arm.

He united with the Old Silver Creek Church early in life, where his membership remained to the end. He was a member of the Arm and Lawrence County Federated L. Collins once said: "There are two types of people in this world—those who come into a room and say, 'Well, here I am,' and those who come in to say, 'Ah, there you are!'" Byron's life was always in the latter category.

Southern Gentleman
One of his glowing attributes was the ability to assure everyone he met that he was their friend, without pretense. He loved the simple things of life and hated camouflage. He was "good" "Byron" 365 days per year. He believed with the writer: "To thine own self be true."

Mr. Garrett was a home-loving body. Most of his visiting was done in errands of mercy—for a sick friend, or a neighbor going through the shadows of adversity. He was one of the most polite, kind, quiet and thoughtful men that we ever chanced to know.

He never turned down a requested favor, regardless of status, creed, or color. He loved and respected individual members of our citizenship, was famous for the amount of hard work he did, and was a most successful businessman.

A typical southern gentleman who aspired to thrive, prosper, and gather around him a group of happy people, for others, he was very versatile, (he was forced to retire, by physical decline) as lumberman, farmer and cattle raiser.

He was old-fashioned, but stood one hundred per cent for the needed material things we associate with progress.

He was 71 years of age and is survived, in addition to his good wife (nee Miss Ruby Little of La.), by four fine children who rank among the leading citizens of our state.

Survivors
They are Mrs. Shelton V. Smith, Brookhaven, Miss.; Willard Garrett, Silver Creek, Miss.; Joe Garrett, Monticello, Miss.; and George Byron Garrett, Jr., Mobile, Ala. Other survivors include a number of grandchildren; two sisters—Mrs. Emmette Lott, Collins, Miss., and Mrs. Julia Brown, Beaumont, Texas; and one brother—Farris P. Garrett, Jasper, Texas.

His funeral was held in Arm Baptist Church, and was one of the largest attended that has been held in this vicinity. Friends and loved ones

Mississippi Leads In Cradle Roll Standards

Mississippi Sunday Schools reported more Cradle Roll Standard Departments and Groups than any other state for the period October 1, 1958 through February, 1959.

In a report released last week from the Sunday School Board the following record of Cradle Roll Standards was revealed:

State	Depts.	Groups
Mississippi	9	43
Florida	5	18
Louisiana	6	16

In addition, Mississippi Sunday School workers can be justly proud of these achievements in Standards—Our Program of Work:

- Ranked second in number of Standard Beginner Depts.
- Ranked second in number of Standard Primary Depts.
- Ranked second in number of Standard Primary Classes
- Tied for second in number Standard Nursery Depts.
- Ranked number four in total number of Standard Units
- Ranked third in total number of Junior Standard units
- Ranked third in total number of Intermediate Standard classes and departments came from far and near to pay the last tribute of respect to this noble man whose life had meant so much to them.

Eloquent tribute was paid the life and character of Mr. Garrett by Rev. Robert E. Saunders, pastor of Arm Church. Scripture reading was by Rev. Toxie Hedgepeth of the Crooked Creek Church. A song: "Many Mansions," was beautifully rendered by the male quartet of Monticello, with Mrs. Charley Chance at the piano.

Palbearers were: Messrs. Preston Davis, Ed Thurman, S. H. Lee, James Griffin, Robert Daniels, and Thomas H. Hutchinson.

Only those who have known this fine man, friend, and neighbor through a period of years can appreciate the full message of what his noble traits meant to those with whom he came in contact.

He was buried in the Arm Cemetery. Our memory shall ever hold for him the tenderest, sweetest thoughts. Our heart-felt sympathy is extended to bereaved ones.

Blest be his memory!

"STANDARD PROGRAM OF WORK" Charts Available

Your Sunday School Department is now offering to the churches an attractive chart entitled "Standard Program of Work," which is to be used in recording the achievements of a school, department, or class in the Standard of Excellence. The largest chart available is for School or Department promotion of the Standard.

For School use you would list the General school, then all departments, or classes (if a class Sunday School) including the Cradle Roll and Extension. Display in prominent place.

For Department use you would list the department first, then all the classes in the department. Order one chart per department and hang in the department assembly. A smaller chart is available for class use; both charts are free of charge from your Sunday School Department.

The ten major sections of the Standard are listed and blank spaces where seals, or other marks can be placed when various points are obtained. Red lines or guide lines can be used effectively and are available at your Baptist Book Store.

When all points are achieved a seal should be placed in the last column and an application for Standard Recognition, properly signed and filled out, should be mailed to the Sunday School Department, Box 530, Jackson, Miss.

Churches which have used this and similar programs have testified that their number of Standard units has doubled or even tripled. The "Standard Program of Work" has all that any church would desire for the elements of good Sunday school work. If your church is not presently promoting Standard you might like to use the following Standard Program of Work Schedule.

- April 15—Standard Presentation Night
- May 13—Standard Application Night
- June 17—Standard Recognition Night
- July 15—Standard Check-up Night

—THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON— He Is Risen From The Dead!

Dr. L. Bracey Campbell
JESUS LIVES (EASTER).
Scripture Lesson: Luke 24:13-49.

INTRODUCTION. Can language used to describe this afternoon and evening in the life of our Lord be extravagant?

An American statesman of the past spoke of a glorious event in the earlier history of our country as, "Another morning risen on mid-noon." Surely the events which we study today make a sunburst, sudden and exceedingly bright, on the dark darkness of midnight. The sun had veiled his noonday splendor and had hidden himself in darkness for three long hours, and had not, I presume, resumed his wonted splendor, but had shed upon the world a sickly light until at the time of his regular down-going the gray day darkened into night.

During this dark evening and night, the high priests and leaders of the Jewish people very likely chortled in their hour of triumph and said to themselves and to one another, "Ah! The deceiver and our enemy, he gave us trouble for a while, and even threatened our authority over the people and the spoil we took from the throng, but we got him at last, and he is dead! We are through with him forever."

Freddie: "Are you the trained nurse mama said was coming?"
Nurse: "Yes, dear, I'm the trained nurse."
Freddie: "Let's see some of your tricks then." —Baptist and Reflector.

Four year old Bobby was stroking his cat before the fire. The cat began to purr loudly, Bobby gazed at her, then suddenly seized her by the tail and dragged her away from the hearth. His mother said, "You mustn't hurt the kitty, Bobby." "I'm not," he said, "but I've got to get her away from the fire. She's beginning to boil."

"Oh, I know a few things!" exclaimed the haughty senior.

"Well, you haven't anything on me," retorted the freshman confidently. "I guess I know as few things as anybody."

Every restaurant proprietor is familiar with the patrons who sometimes ask that the beefsteak be put in a bag "for the dog."

Word reaches us that when it happened on a recent occasion, the small boy in the family spoke up in a shrill and excited voice: "Oh, boy, we gonna get a dog?"

Delinquency Of Juviles Is Hit By Drug Proposal

WASHINGTON (BP)—A step to help curb juvenile delinquency has been taken in a Congressional proposal for a Federal law regulating the manufacture and distribution of amphetamine and barbiturate drugs.

The bill was introduced in the 86th Congress by Sen. Thos. C. Hennings (D. Mo.), chairman of the Subcommittee to Investigate Juvenile Delinquency.

Hennings pointed out to Congress that amphetamine, barbiturate and narcotic drugs have many legitimate and beneficial effects when properly used, they produce narcotic effects when used for that purpose. Widespread misuse of these drugs has resulted in increased juvenile delinquency and crime, according to reports to the Hennings Subcommittee.

He commissions them to preach the gospel to the ends of the earth, lays upon them and upon us no less bindingly the obligation to carry the message of His salvation, as the world's only hope, as far as the waves of humanity roll.

The Place Of Victory

By DR. J. WILLIAM HARBIN, Pastor
First, New Albany

Napoleon once took a map and pointing to the British Isles remarked, "Were it not for that red spot I would have conquered the world."

Satan today points to the cross of Calvary and says were it not for that hill, that red spot, I would have conquered man.

Oh what a blessed thought it is to know that God loved us enough to make provision for our sins. The Cross was not a last minute desperate struggle to snatch man from Satan. The atonement was not an accident. From the foundation of the world Jesus was the "Lamb of God," slain for our sins. Every time an animal was offered on the altar by the high priest it pointed to the supreme sacrifice, on Calvary. The Passover, the willingness of Abraham to offer Isaac as a sacrifice, and all the other similar events were God's foreshadows of Golgotha.

In these days of marvelous scientific advancement and unparalleled power we need to quietly draw ourselves aside and be reminded again that "by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous." (Romans 5:19) Man has come a long way in many fields of endeavor, but he can not make himself righteous. This is why Calvary is not only unique but an imperative for a lost sinful world.

Help For The Wounded

During the Franco-Prussian War the French went out into the battlefield to find the wounded. Softly they spoke, "We are your friends. We have come to help you—to take you to safety. If you are wounded and need help whisper softly and we'll take you to safety."

This is the plea of our Saviour to all who are dying in sin. It is also the responsibility of the saints to go out into the battlefield of man's struggle with sin and bring the wounded to the hill where Satan was forever defeated.

Pastor Returns From Puerto Rico

Rev. Harold E. O'Chester, pastor of First Church, Purvis, just returned home from an evangelistic tour of Puerto Rico. This trip was made possible by the deacons of his church.

While on the island, Rev. O'Chester preached both morning and night to native Puerto Ricans and state-wide Americans. During the afternoons he visited numerous potential Southern Baptist mission points on the island and spoke through interpreters to the Puerto Ricans.

In the one year history of the Metropolitan Baptist church, in which Rev. O'Chester was preaching, no native-born Puerto Rican had united with the church.

During these special services, a number of Puerto Ricans, as well as a number of state-side Americans, became members of the church.

Many Mississippi Baptist servicemen are residing on the island in one of the three service bases. They should be urged to attend the services of this Southern Baptist Church in San Juan, says Mr. O'Chester.

During his travels, on the island, 75 colored slides were taken, contrasting the poverty and poor living conditions with the wealth of the beauty of nature on the island. These slides will be shown in the church at a later date and will be available to anyone who requests them.

TRUSTEES BROWSE—Examining books at the new Mississippi College Library are Board of Trustee members T. M. Hederman Jr., editor of the Jackson Clarion Ledger; B. C. Rodgers, Morton businessman, president of the Board; and W. D. Lofton Sr., Brookhaven businessman. Board members took a tour of the new building during their last meeting at the college.

70,000 AT MELBOURNE BILLY GRAHAM RALLY—Melbourne—Despite a temperature of more than 90 degrees, some 70,000 persons attended a rally of Billy Graham's Australian Crusade in Melbourne's outdoor Music Bowl. Some of the people carried umbrellas to protect them from the hot sun. Some 350 were felled by the heat. To accommodate the great crowds attending the American evangelist's meetings, the rallies were transferred from the West Melbourne Stadium, where the campaign opened Feb. 15, to the much larger Music Bowl.—(RNS Photo).

MORGANTOWN TO DEDICATE NEW BUILDING

The new building will house an auditorium with seating capacity of 350 and 17 rooms for educational space. The building is centrally heated with the auditorium air-conditioned.

The Morgantown Church is located in a growing location. The church is 4½ years old and has an active membership of 300. In the past ten months there have been 117 additions.

April 5 will be observed as high attendance day with a goal of 300 in Sunday School and 175 in Training Union.

Upon moving into the new building both the Sunday School and the Training Union will go on the departmental basis.

Rev. J. F. Stanford is pastor.

Carey Observes Vocations Week

Dedicated Vocations Week was observed at William Carey College March 2-6. The purpose of the special week's activities was to lead each student to dedicate his life to the will of God.

The three chapel services were conducted by people representing the fields of business, industry and politics.

Dr. Pat Moseley, research superintendent for Hercules Powder Company of Hattiesburg, spoke in the interest of science at the Wednesday chapel program.

The Friday chapel service was conducted by Hon. Carroll Curtis, Lt. Governor of Mississippi.

Rev. Billy Greene
Rawls Springs Calls Pastor

Rev. Billy Greene, after completing six full years of service as pastor of the Mt. Zion Church at Independence in Tate County, has resigned to accept the pastorate of Rawls Springs Church, Hattiesburg.

During his pastorate at Mt. Zion a new $10,000 annex was built and paid for; the Sunday School was completely departmentalized; a new organ and four pianos were purchased; the kitchen was fully equipped; the church grounds were landscaped; there were 127 additions to the church, most of them professions of faith. The church is giving 12 per cent of its income in offerings to the Cooperative Program.

Mr. Greene has served three years as Miss. Baptist Convention Board member and was serving as associational moderator at the time he left Tate County.

The Mt. Zion Church gave Mr. and Mrs. Greene a lounge chair and the Mt. Zion deacons gave them a punch bowl and crystal candle holder. The Methodist Church presented them with an engraved silver fruit bowl.

Upon arrival at Rawls Springs the Greens found the pastorial redecorated and received a full pantry shower.

Mrs. Greene is the former Bess Ann Smith of Blue Mountain and Louisville, Miss. The couple have three children, Richard Alan, 5; John Mark, 2; and Margaret Emily, 10 months.

Foreign Mission Board Reports To The People

Twenty Missionaries Appointed

The Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board brought the activity total to 1,293. The new missionaries are J. Franklin Baugh, Jr., and Jean Annis Baugh, both natives of Kentucky, appointed for East Pakistan; Paul Box and Pattye Norwood Box, both of Oklahoma, for Indonesia; Eric H. Clark and Phyllis Hope Clark, both of England, for East Africa.

Also, Charlie W. Fenner, Texas, appointed for Japan; Harris W. Mobley and Vivian Anderson Mobley, both of Georgia, for Ghana; James B. Payne, Virginia, for Nigeria; Edward O. Sanders and Jaletta Davis Sanders, both of Oklahoma, for Indonesia.

Also Lewis R. Smith, Georgia, and Shirley Smith, Florida, appointed for Hong Kong; Clarence Thurman, Jr., and Eddie Tilden Thurman, both of Kentucky, for Malaya; S. Thomas Tipton and Virginia Dixon Tipton, both of Kentucky, for East Africa; and Weldon E. Viertel and Joyce Garrett Viertel, both of Texas, for the Bahamas.

Changing World Needs Gospel

In his report which followed the appointment service, Dr. Baker J. Cauthen, executive secretary of the Board, said each of the new appointees has 40 years of missionary expectancy. "During the 40 years that lie before the group we now appoint the world's population is expected to become approximately 6,000,000,000," he said. "We preach an unchanging gospel of redemption, but we are required to relate ourselves to emerging situations across the world in such a way that our witness can be most effective. We live in an era of dying colonialism and emerging nationalism on every continent.

"The forces of Communism seek to seize upon the historic trends now in operation and ride upon them to world supremacy. In the midst of this world of tension and change, hope lies at the point of establishing across the world up of people who have met Christ in personal experience.

Those New Testament churches, resting upon principles revealed in the Scriptures, bear witness to the light of eternal truth for all men who, by being transformed by redeeming grace and illumined with the light of God's eternal revelation, can relate themselves to their fellow men and their world in terms of righteousness, love, and peace."

Latin-American Conference

Dr. Cauthen recently returned from a brief trip to Latin America where he shared in conferences in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. The meeting in Buenos Aires was the second area-wide mission conference held in Latin America, in consultation with committees made up of missionaries serving in the various countries. Dr. Means will return to Board headquarters in Richmond, Va., March 17, after having been in Latin America since last January.

Vast Possibilities In Brazil

From Buenos Aires, Dr. Cauthen went to Rio de Janeiro for conferences with representatives of the Brazilian Baptist Convention and the three Missions of the Foreign Mission Board operating in Brazil. He said: "One senses in Brazil the vast possibilities of Christian work. With its great concentration of Baptist strength, Brazil may well become one of the greatest Baptist communities in the world.

"Baptist leaders are planning for a closing service at the Baptist World Alliance, when it meets in Rio in 1960, to be held in stadium that sets between 150,000 and 200,000 people. Billy Graham will preach, and it is expected that the stadium will be filled. That service could turn out to be the largest Baptist gathering ever assembled and one of the most

ORGAN STUDENTS with Mrs. Frances Townsend gathered around the new Baldwin organ recently given to Clarke Memorial College by the T. A. Gilbert family of Meridian. Clarke Gets Its First Organ

Clarke College now has an organ for the first time in its history. The new Baldwin 5-A organ with a retail value of $3,600 is the gift of the T. A.

Gilbert family of Meridian, given as a memorial to their son, First Lieutenant James Kenneth Gilbert who was a casualty during World War II. This is next to the largest gift to be made to the Fiftieth Anniversary Offering and brings this offering to a total of $24,600.

Arrowood Church Ordains Deacons

ARROWOOD Church, Meridian, has ordained five deacons as follows: J. D. Mayatt, D. J. Snowden, W. M. Rolison, Clarence K. Jones, and Fred Williams.

Ordained ministers present for the questioning were from the host church and State Boulevard Church.

Ordained ministers present were Rev. J. W. Warren, Rev. H. D. Booth, Rev. Judd Allen, Rev. W. H. Henderson, Rev. J. C. Murphy, Rev. Eugene L. Robert, host pastor.

Dr. J. C. Murphy, pastor of the 15th Ave. Church, brought the message.

A reception for the newly ordained deacons and their wives was held immediately after the service.

remarkable evangelistic opportunities ever known."

Installed in the college auditorium, the organ will be used in chapel and special services and also as a teaching instrument. Already thirteen pupils are studying organ, with Mrs. Frances Townsend of the Music Department as instructor. Mrs. Townsend has a B. A. from Mississippi College, a Master of Music degree from Louisiana State University and has done additional graduate work at Mississippi Southern College.

Lover of Music
Kenneth Gilbert was a graduate of Meridian High School and Millsaps College. Some of the many awards he received were The Senior Award for outstanding member of the Band, Vice-President and Drum Major of the Band and membership in Omicron Delta Kappa Leadership Fraternity.

It is quite appropriate that this lovely instrument should be dedicated to his memory, for he was a lover of music and an accomplished musician. In addition to participation in the band, he played the marimba with outstanding skill. Also, it is fitting that such a memorial should be placed at Clarke College. His sister, Mrs. Dorothy Gilbert Hicks, served for a short time on the faculty.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (BSB)—The annual issue of the Southern Baptist Handbook will be merged with The Quarterly Review with the July-August-September issue, J. P. Edmunds, editor said.
